

Independence

X and Y are independent if:

$$P(X, Y) = P(X)P(Y)$$

Diagram illustrating the relationship between the joint probability and the marginal probabilities:

- The term $P(X, Y)$ is labeled as the Joint probability.
- The terms $P(X)$ and $P(Y)$ are collectively labeled as the Marginals.

