

Summary

- Two smoothing methods
  - Jelinek-Mercer: Fixed coefficient linear interpolation
  - Dirichlet Prior: Adding pseudo counts; adaptive interpolation
- Both lead to state of the art retrieval functions with assumptions clearly articulated (less heuristic)
  - Also implementing TF-IDF weighting and doc length normalization
  - Has precisely one (smoothing) parameter