

Week summary

Monte Carlo methods to approximate expected values

How to sample from distribution known up to normalization constant?

Two MCMC approaches:

- Gibbs sampling – reducing multidimensional sampling to a sequence of 1d
- Metropolis Hastings – rejection sampling for Markov Chains (gives more freedom)